"INVISIBLE EMPIRE" PLANS TO HOLD BIG INITIATION TONIGHT

County Authorities Are Investigating Their Power to Halt the Masked Demonstration.

Following the flooding of the streets of Sonoma Wednesday night with K. K. K. cards, county authorities are investigating their powers in stopping masked demonstrations.

Assembly bill 1224, introduced by Assemblyman Badaracco at the last session of the legislature and signed by the governor makes it illegal for any person or group of persons to appear publicly with their features masked or disguised by any "regalia or paraphenilia" except for the purpose of amusement.

The wearing of masks at a lodge or society cannot be stopped under this law, according to Superior Judge R. L. Thompson, but it was hinted by District Attorney Hoyle that any public demonstration of masked persons would be fought by county officers.

That the Klan initiation of several hundred candidates in the vicinity of Sonoma county is not idle talk, was evidenced when great quantities of small square cards bearing the K. K. K. of the order, were found on the streets, and in cars. Some of these cards stated that a "Klan Initiation is coming soon," and "K. K. K, watch us grow."

Rumors have been current for several days that the "Invisible Empire" plans a giant initiation near here tonight.

DAVE ERALDI OPENS HIS NEW STORE

Dave Eraldi has opened his new store for men, The Toggery, and is now doing business at the temporary home of the up-to-date shop, opposite the Don Theatre. The opening was most auspicious, many friends and customers calling in to congratulate Sonoma's young merchant and wish him success. Out of town friends sent a floral horseshoe and other gay pieces with best wishes.

Despite a broken arm, which Dave sustained while fixing up his new shop for the opening, the live wire business man is handing out a nice line of goods to the trade and declares business starts off real good.

The Toggery believes in advertising and this week has a message about the latest styles in shirts for fall and winter. See ad.

Business Tax Is Upheld In Santa Rosa

Judge Campbell Renders Decision Stating That Business License Tax Is Legal and Valid.

The constitutionality of Santa Rosa's business license ordinance was up held Monday by Superior Judge Ross Campbell.

Judge Campbell's opinion sustained the action of City Recorder C. N. Collins in fining Dr. P. A. Meneray $10 recently for failing to pay his business license tax.

The court bases its opinion on rulings of the State supreme court, particularly one in which the business license provision in the Los Angeles city charter was upheld.

"It is conceded," the opinion states, "that the mere fact that a physician or an attorney is licensed by the State to practice his profession, if the ordinance is properly drafted and based upon proper authority, does not exempt him from the payment of a license tax, and it is so held in the recent case of in re Galusha. 184 Cal. 697, and cases cited therein.

"The objection that the ordinance is not uniform in its operation in that it imposes a license a license tax on those lawyers and physicians who conduct and carry on the business of their professions and exempts from such tax persons of those professions who are engaged in such professions solely as employees, is untenable."

The court declares further in the opinion that the objection which requides the most serious consideration is that the city has no right under its charter to impose a license on persons engaged in the conduct of business or engaged in carrying on professions or callings.

"It would seem," the opinion goes on, after quoting several sections of the charter, "that the charter is a limitation rather than a grant of power." This last comment refers to sections in the city charter giving the city blanket powers on municipal affairs, so long as it does not conflict with the State constitution.

Judge Campbell quotes the supreme court further in saying:

"The collection of a license tax for revenue purposes is a well recognized exercise of the taxing power. That the power of taxation is a power appropriate for a municipality to possess is too obvious to merit discussion."

The case will be appealed.

Mrs. Casson Has Retired From Business

Mrs. E. T. Casson who has conducted a dress making shop on Broadway for the past year, has retired from business, much to the regret of her many customers. Mrs. Casson, who is a clever designer, found the work too arduous and so decided to give up the daily grind of business for her pretty ranch home east of town.

J. W. Minges Sells Property On Highway at Boyes Springs to Ann Isadore.

Activity in Boyes Springs real estate was evident this week when J. W. Minges consummated a deal with Miss Ann Isador of Boyes for the sale of 137 feet of his property facing the highway, the price is said to be in the neighborhood of $6000. The land is the former site of the restaurant owned by Mr. Minges and is a corner.

The purchaser, who has been connected with the Boyes Hot Springs Hotel for the past 8 years, intends to erect a concrete garage to be leased to Eric Blomgren, well known automobile man of the Springs section, and she may also build a restaurant with apartments above. Mayor Minges is said to have other buyers negotiating for more of his property.

Other Boyes Springs property owners who have had offers made, particularly for highway frontage include Mrs. Gatchell and B. Cabanot. Mr Cabanot is said to have refused an offer of $10,000 for his property.

The Boyes Springs Lumber Company have erected a modern office building on the former site of the plant destroyed by the fire and have built up-to-date sheds running the depth of their property to the railroad siding.

The Kramer store is nearing completion and many other improvements are contemplated as soon as the new state highway grade is authortatively established.

Five new cottages are to be erected just back of the hotel site by a property owner named Smith who has unbounded faith in the bigger future for Boyes Springs.

The Shaeffer property near the bath house is being sought for a sanitarium but the Shaeffer's may decide to rebuild.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY PASSED BY SANTA ROSANS

Expresses Regret at Fire and Would Establish Community Contact With Sonoma Valley.

Mark Lee the recently appointed secretary of the Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce has written a letter to the Valley of the Moon Chamber of Commerce containing resolutions of sympathy in regard to the recent fire and also bespeaking on behalf of the Santa Rosa organization, friendly relations with the Sonoma Valley. The letter came to Wm. Fitzgerald of Boyes Springs who points out the need of a local Chamber of Commerce or the revitalizing of the Sonoma Valley organization, now defunct.

The letter from the Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce and accompaning resolutions are as follows:

Valley of the Moon Chamber of Commerce,

I am enclosing herewith a copy of the resolution which was passed at the September 18th, meeting of the Board of Directors. Delay in getting this to you has been partially due to our records not showing the headquarters of your organization, and our delay in getting this information, and partially due to procrastination.

We have been informed that the road between here and your section will be opened for use about the first of next week. We are told that it will be some little time after that before the road will be completed, but hope that as soon as the road is open, we may begin to re-establish the friendly relations which existed between your district and this section prior to the road getting into such bad condition that these relations were broken off.

If you will let me know when you are having your next public meeting, or Directors meeting at which we would be welcome, I will be glad to arrange for a committee to attend at which we might at least establish friendly contact.

Looking forward to the pleasure of making your personal acquaintance, I am Very truly yours,

Mark Lee, Secretary

Resolution of Sympathy

Whereas, the Valley of the Moon has suffered heavily from fire, and

Whereas, there has always existed a feeling of neighborly friendliness between that district and Santa Rosa, which we desire to perpetuate,

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, representing this city and its environs, on this day, September 19, 1923, hereby expresses the sincere sympathy which is felt here for our neighbors in the Valley of the Moon at the fire loss which they have suffered, both materially and for the marring of the natural beauty in that district.

Frank Thiel, champion frog catcher, who several years ago resided in El Verano, and is now following his vocation as piano player, was in town Sunday from Emeryville in quest of live Valley of the Moon French frogs for the new aquarium in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco. Thiel succeeded in landing a number of the long-legged beauties, for which Sonoma Creek is famous, and these amphibious creatures will be placed in the lake at the aquarium.

Mrs. L. Turner has been visiting and shopping in San Francisco.

Bootleggers and hard liquor merchants of the Valley of the Moon shed a tear this week upon learning that Miss Daisy Simpson, widely known dry sleuth, who is working under E. C. Yellowley of Washington D. C., had been wounded by a bullet. Miss Simpson, dressed as a live chicken, has succeeded in getting the goat of many a booze seller and has made a number of captures in these parts. The dispensers of moonshine, thinking they had won a happy home, fell for the dashing miss and so were led into her trap.

Joe Sorini, the vinegar king of Sonoma Valley, is filling a number of tank cars at the S. P. yards here, which will be shipped to Richmond.

Miss L. Howard and Mrs. J. Baker El Verano school teachers, were Friday evening S. P. passengers on the local northbound Saita Rosa Limited.

"Yes we have some fortune tellers in town." A gypsy palm reader is camped on the Sonoma Creek, accompanied by her son. The wanderers are well housed in a de luxe auto home, which is elegantly furnished. The natives are rushing to the little lady to have their fortunes told, and as they emerge from the tent of mystery, one would think they had been put on the track of a million dollars. This clairvoyant will remain here for the winter months and everybody is having their future reviewed by the little gypsy queen.

Mrs. Barrickman and son, Bert, of Oakland, were visiting friends in El Verano recently.

A number of San Francisco politicians motored to Agua Caliente on Sunday. Banners of their candidates decorated the cars and the boys were boosting for their favorites. During the day they were entertained by our Sonoma Valley politicians, Tom Corcoran and Dal Emparan. Brady, Finn and Mayor Rolph look like sure winners at the coming November election in San Francisco.

Pat McDonnell, foreman of the Spreckels ranch, who gained the honor at the Boyes Springs carnival last spring of being the most popular man in the Valley of the Moon, was taken into custody last week by Game Commissioner Lencioni, who charged McDonnell with negligently permitting dogs to run loose and trail deer during the closed season. Late last week the two dogs struck the trail of a large deer and chased it onto the Merz ranch, where the deer was cornered and pulled down by the dogs. This fine buck was one of the largest and prettiest five pointers seen in these parts. Pat was fined $25.

On Friday evening of last week two large S. P. engines ran into an open switch near Napa Junction and jumped the track. Two tank cars also left the rails and piled up. Trains on other branches were late on their regular time schedules as a result of the wreck. About the time all this was happening the bridge tender at Napa Bridge, Otto Whitehouse, dropped dead. Whitehouse was a veteran S. P. employee and well known all over the state. Taken all together, Friday, October 12, was an unlucky day for the S. P.

E. and Chip Vincent, former El Verano butchers, were here from San Francisco Sunday looking the old town over and visiting John Vincent and Mrs. C. Danieli.

"A good man can't be downed." So said Charlie Miller last Sunday, as the writer talked to the big Rumanian and the conversation turned to pugilistic happenings. Miller wants to wipe the black streak off his record and says he will go into training and demand a return go with Jack Wills, black man of Sonoma, who recently gained a decision over him. The veteran is in earnest and all that is lacking to conclude final details is a club which will put up real coin and the match is cinched. The writer considers Miller has a good chance to redeem his lost laurels and bring the white championship back where it belongs. Charlie was not in shape for the last go, but will see that he trims the coon if they start again. His fighting blood is at a high pitch and he is rearin' to go to redeem those honors he struggled hard to gain in the old days.

William Dwyer, S. P. station agent at Benecia, came over Sunday and spent the day with Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan.

J. K. Bigelow was a well known visitor in El Verano Monday morning. He now resides in San Francisco.

A barnyard golf club is the latest in El Verano sporting circles and former lovers of the old reliable game of horseshoes say they can throw the old luck emblem over the peg as in days of yore. The game all over the state is staging a comeback and El Verano is going to produce a champ among its many enthusiasts.

PUBLIC TO PARTICIPATE IN PROFITS OF BRIDGE

Local interest in the Carquinez bridge has received renewed impetus with the arrival last week of fiscal agents of the American Toll Bridge Company, which is rushing construction on the project, following the pouring of concrete on the first pier some weeks ago.

The advent of these men locally has been a source of surprise to people here, who understood at the time the bridge plans were consummated that financing was complete.

This is borne out by the local fiscal representatives of the bridge concern who state that the entire project was underwritten by a Philadelphia financial house. They declare that the offering of bridge securities in the West is a direct response of the American Toll Bridge Company to a wholesale demand of people in California that they be allowed an opportunity to participate in the project.

America's greatest bridge, as the Carquinez bridge has come to be known over the country, is now rapidly becoming a reality with active construction going on at a great pace.

Every effort is being bent to beat the schedule, which calls for completion by the middle of 1925. When finished, the bridge will be 3350 feet in length with double cantilever spans of 1100 feet each, making it the largest bridge of its type in the world. It will accommodate four cars abreast with cement walkways for pedestrians and will be as high as the great bridges of New York, giving ample clearance for the largest vessels afloat. It will cost $4,000,000 to construct.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinnenook and daughter have returned to Sonoma after an absence of several months. He has been in Alaska with a fishing expedition and reports a fine catch.

SONOMA VALLEY IMPROVEMENT CLUB NOTES

The Sonoma Valley Improvement Club held their regular meeting Tuesday evening, President Krecker in the chair. L. L. Jones presented the new by-laws, a neat, compact production, and the publishers, the Sonoma Index-Tribune, deserve special credit for the artistic job, which compares favorably with any product of the city. I may say further that the Club expressed their appreciation, as it is understood the Index-Tribune in order to get the publication out in time for the meeting, laid aside other work of an important nature. Mr. Jones was also the recipient of a rising vote of thanks for his masterful campaign in securing the many advertisements, a work requiring super-energy. Mr. Jones' slogan is "the Club first, last and always."

Jean Cazes is motoring to Los Angeles and while away will look over the prospects of the Golden Gate Oil fields, in which he and some of his friends are stockholders. Wouldn't it be funny if Jean turns out to be a bloated oil magnate? He is accompanied by Mr. Turner, ex-president of the Caliente Park Water Company.

The social dance at the club house will be continued this Saturday, the last affair being a pronounced success in every way.

CONSUL DR. DAVIS ON CHICKEN DISEASES

Word has recently come from Dr. J. R. Beach, who was in charge of poultry disease work in the Veterinary Science Division of the College of Agriculture that Dr. D. E. Davis has recently been appointed to take charge of the Avian Pathology Laboratory at Petaluma.

Dr. Davis is a pathologist who comes from Kansas State Agricultural College, Manhattan, Kan., and has been on the Veterinary Science Staff there for some time, working on poultry diseases. He is expected to arrive in Petaluma this week and will take charge of the research work being conducted there as well as posting dead birds brought in by poultrymen of the district.

Dr. Davis will not be able to visit poultrymen on their ranches since he is stationed at the laboratory in Petaluma primarily to do research work in poultry diseases. However, he will be glad to discuss disease problems with poultrymen who my wish to visit the laboratory.

Mrs. C. F. Hamilton of Long Beach is visiting her mother, Mrs. Wardel at the Florence Murphy home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Thomas made a trip recently to Stockton, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thomas (Marie Helberg) and baby.

SONOMA VALLEY FOLKS LIKE SPECIAL SALES

It is quite evident from the crowd that thronged Clewe's store last Saturday morning that Sonoma folks like sales. This was an aluminum sale and had been well advertised. Two weeks prior to the bargain day the firm put the goods in the window carried display advertising, circulated dodgers in regard to it, and primed buyers for the big opportunity. The public was not slow to respond and Saturday morning busy housewives left their homes at 9 o'clock to be in on the bargains. Despite the large crowd of eager buyers, everyone got good service and went away with their aluminum and a smile. By 10 o'clock almost the entire line was sold.

W. F. Clewe was pleased with the results and plans another kind of sale in the near future.

Here is shown "America's Greatest Bridge" now building across the Straits of Carquinez, the largest double span cantilever bridge in the world; 3350 feet long; with two 1100 foot fairways for the passage of ocean going ships; wide enough to accommodate four cars abreast with concrete pedestrian walks.

Cars from Everywhere

Motor travel—north, east, south and west—to and from the heavily populated San Francisco Bay region; tourists visiting California and desirous of traveling through the central part of the State will use the Carquinez Bridge.

California's motor registration is 1,079,783 vehicles; the State's list of visiting cars number hundreds of thousands a year; team and pedestrian travel is great. All of the units of this tremendous traffic may be counted as customers of this bridge and its owners to whom they will gladly pay generous tolls.

It is impossible to calculate the business this bridge will do, even figuring on the basis of the large business now being done by the auto ferries now operated at this point by the bridge company, which ferries, together with others operated on San Francisco Bay, will contribute rich quotas of earnings to the investors in the American Toll-Bridge Company.

Suffice it to say that the entire motoring public of California is eagerly awaiting the completion of the bridge, which is being rushed as rapidly as possible.

Abundant reason for the popularity of investments in the American Toll-Bridge Company in the West! Every motorist knows what the bridge will mean to western motordom and what revenues it will enjoy.

A fiscal representative of the American Toll-Bridge Company is in your territory now, ready to give you complete information on this investment opportunity.

Fill out and mail the coupon to be sure of an interview. You incur no obligation by asking for this information.

PUTTING POLITICS INTO THE SCHOOLS

The addresses being delivered by State Superintendent of Schools Wood and County Superintendent Keppel of Los Angeles, prove conclusively, that these political educators are trying to drag the schools into politics and are in league with the spendthrifts who are ghting economy.

The Santa Cruz Sentinel scores Wood and Keppel in the following editorial:

"Will Wood, Mark Kepel & Company, were busy again yesterday, this time at the Teachers' Institute, maligning and vilifying Governor Richardson. This is the company that has been attacked by the Governor as an "organization" of school teaching politicians and they have on every hand attempted to discredit him wwith any and all who would listen to them.

"Yesterday afternoon Will Wood was so gentlemanly—and platitudinous—that no one could have objected to any of his remarks. In fact they would have thought him absolutely harmless had they not been present to hear the volcanic cruption of his co-partner, the county superintendent of the Los Angeles schools, Mark Keppel.

"All in all, Keppel's whole tirade was a disgusting attempt to inject politics into what should be a purely educational session of teachers, who are inattendance for the purpose of learning better methods for teaching our children. Politics has no place in the sessions of the Teachers' Institute either here or any other place, and Keppel's talk was an obvious attempt to prejudice the California teachers of California children against the Governor of the State of California."

Petaluma chickens always were popular, but now their friends are Legion.

Sonoma County got the right of way from every property owner so we could have a highway. Now we ask the good gentlemen of the Highway Commission to give us the highway right away.

PHIL WHITING MANAGING DESERT PLAY

The following letter has been received from Phil Whiting, clever tecnical director for Garnet Holme, who will be remembered for his excellent work here during the Sonoma Mission Play.

The third annual Desert Play will be given at Palm Springs on the afternoons of November 3rd and 4th. Mr. Garnet Holme, founder of the Play, has decided upon Mary Austin's Fire Play for this year's production The Play proved so popular and received such favorable comment tha it was decided to make it an annua event.

The Play Fire, is based on an ol Indian Legend of the discovery o the use of fire by man.

The Play is being staged by Jeffer Williams, a veteran actor and director of both stage and screen. He has selected an all star professional cast from the various theatres and studios of Los Angeles and Hollywood, to play the many varied parts in this production.

The Play is given in a natural theatre at the foot of Mt. San Jacinto and is located just a mile from Palm Springs and is on Indian land. Nothing has been changed—the surrounding country is the same as it was a few hundred years ago when the Indians wandered over the country in wild warring tribes.

The Play begins promptly at three o'clock and is over at sunset. There are paved roads leading to Palm Springs.

Mrs. Minnie Norrbom of Broadway took the auto bus to San Francisco and spent two weeks there visiting friends and relatives. While down she saw the Duncan Sisters in Topsy and Eva and says the house was crowded despite the fifteenth week of their clever production.

CELEBRATED BIRTHDAY

A birthday dinner, beautifully served, at the Nordwell Avenue Resort, was given by E. A. Hoyer last week in honor of his birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Hoyer entertained a congenial party of friends at the birthday, which was voted a most enjoyable occasion.

S. P. REFRIGERATOR CAR LOADING SETS RECORD

Southern Pacific lines sent 16,000 refrigerator cars East in September, the greatest number for any September in the company's history, it was announced recently by G. W. Luce, freight traffic manager

The system by which laoded refrigerator cars are sent East and empties are brought West, which was carefully worked out with eastern connections by the S. P. Company and other lines, has been and is working smoothly and efficiently. As a result of one phase of this plan a surplus of 13,400 refrigerator cars on S. P. lines was attained on September 1.

However, even with this number of cars at hand it has been impossible since September 20 for the railroads to fill completely all demands for cars, although the situation is vastly improved over that of last year when, because of disturbed industrial conditions east of the Mississippi, a shortage occurred early in August of that year. The chief difficulty encountered now is that of getting the cars unloaded quickly at eastern markets. The handcap of this situation may be realized from reports received for one day, October 9, when 429 cars of grapes were waiting unloading in Chicago, 422 cars in Pittsburgh and a proportionate number in other eastern markets.

Grapes shipped from California by all railroad lines totalled 28,000 carloads on October 10 this season. At the same time the record shipment of grapes is being moved eastward great volumes of citrus fruit, vegetables and other California perishables are being handled.

To provide an ample supply of refrigerator cars to handle the peak load in any year, especially in a record breaking shipping season such as this means the outlay of an enormous amount of capital which, of course, receives no return during the long off season. The capital expenditure for such a maximum supply of refrigerator cars would be reflected in increased transportation costs, which places a burden on the carriers and which may be reflected on shippers without any commensurate benefit. However, important additions to refrigerator equipment available this season have been made. These greatly facilitate the handling of this year's unprecedented shipments. The Pacific Fruit Express Company, owned jointly by the Southern Pacific and the Union Pacific, has brought its supply of refrigerator cars to approximately 30,000, an increase of more than one-third over the 1922 supply.

WAS DAISY STUCK FOR THE DRINKS?

Miss Daisy Simpson, noted woman prohibitionist agent, in the San Francisco district, is in the U. S. Marine Hospital under mysterious circumstances. Although Miss Simpson is alleged to have declared that a wound in her arm resulted from a bullet, physicians at the hospital declare that she is suffering from a hat pin wound.

Refusing to disclose the details in which she claims to have been shot, Miss Simpson said that she would make her report to her superior, E. C. Yellowley, chief of field forces at Washington, D. C. She claims that the wound was inflicted during a raid on Thursday night of last week.

"She was not shot. The correct information is that she was stuck with a hat pin," attending physicians said.

Her condition is not serious and she is expected to be discharged from the hospital shortly.

The woman prohi agent is well known in Sonoma Valley, where she operated before and after prohibition and was a familiar figure at road houses.

They also enjoyed many good shows in the evening and visited friends at San Mateo and Burlingame while on the trip.

SONOMA GETS FINE WRITE-UP IN MOTORLAND

"Motor Land" for October contains an attractive article on the Valley of the Moon by Vonard Fraser. It is illustrated with pictures of the Jack London ranch and pays rich tribute to the author's choice of a home, historic and beautiful Sonoma Valley.

Says the article:

"From the top of the hill on the London ranch is the beautiful vista he has so well described in his novel which has its setting in this well-loved district. As you descend through the tangle of forest and vine, past the ruined 'castle' which the author had built for his permanent home, and look down into the deep gorge, through which winds Sonoma Creek, you no longer wonder at the spell wrought by nature on the dwellers of the valley. It is an inspiration for the story-teller or poet; it is a real 'Land of Heart's Desire.'"

In the same same number of "Motor Land" is a pictorial travelogue of the old Missions of California in which Mission San Francisco de Solano of Sonoma is artistically pictured.

Ed Clements and Harold Pauli headed a party of hunters which bagged 36 ducks last week on the marshes near Schellville.

Mrs. Clara Lowell is having her pretty home painted on the outside and interior by Fred Bulotti.

TIRE PRICES REDUCED

E. Coates, proprietor of the Ford Garage, Sonoma, has made another striking reduction on Goodyear tires and both the Wingfoot cords and the famous Goodyear All Weather tread fabric and cords are now selling at the lowest price in history.

New prices on Pathfinder and Wingfoot tires are given in another part of this paper, and Mr. Coates suggests you ask him for the new prices on the All Weather Tread line that goes into effect today.

Mr. Coates announces that the large volume of business the motorists of Sonoma and vicinity have given him this year on Goodyear tires justifies this last reduction.

ACCREDITED HATCHERY OCTOBER NEWS LETTER

The Sonoma County Farm Bureau accredited hatchery list continues to grow in strength and numbers. During the past month another hatchery made application to be included in the list, and following their flocks passing satisfactory inspection and being approved by the Executive Committee of the Poultry Department, they have been placed on the October list. This hatchery is the G. & C. Poultry Farm of Sonoma.

The inspection for culling of accredited hatchery breeding flocks has been practically completed for this season. Breeding flocks comprising 283,719 hens, from which 58,425 culls and 4,445 colored birds, or a total of 22 per cent have been removed, have been passed by the inspector. There are still approximately 40,000 breeding hens to be inspected which work will be completed during the fore part of the present month.

To date, approximately 12,500 double pedigree cockerels meeting the requirements of the accredited hatchery agreement for next season which were purchased recently, have been passed by the inspector, as were also 5,500 cockerels which were raised by hatching egg producers and accredited hatcheries on their own plants. There are still 6,000 more pedigreed cockerels which have been purchased, but not yet delivered.

During September tuberculosis was discovered in a small breeding flock and as a result the flock was immediately disposed of.

One hatching egg producer was dropped by one of the accredited hatcheries as a result of failure to comply with the culling regulations of the accredited hatchery agreement.

Two cases recently came to the inspector's attention where single or half pedigree cocks, which have been discarded from the accredited hatchery flocks due to the requirement that cockerels used in the accredited hatcheries flocks next season must have a full pedigree, have been sold to non-accredited hatcheries. These, of course were good healthy birds, but this fact represents the superiority of breeding of the accredited hatchery chicks, which should eventually mean more eggs for the purchaser of accredited hatchery chicks. It should be constantly borne in mind by poultrymen however, that while breeding for production is an extremely important factor in getting more eggs per hen, there are still other important factors in obtaining high egg production which not be overlooked and if anything should be given even more careful consideration, the higher the breeding.

LOWER INFLATION FOR AUTO TIRES

By following the new lower inflation pressures for automobile tires which has just been recommended by the Rubber Association, every advantage of cord tire construction can be obtained wwithout risk of injury to the tire.

E. Coates of the Ford Garage Goodyear Service Station, in Sonoma, in commenting on the new load and inflation scale recommended by the Rubber Association, says:

"Because of the patented group-ply construction of Goodyear cord tires, they are naturally more flexible and resist under-inflation extremely well. But Goodyear still warns against under-inflation.

"Now that new inflation pressures have been recommended, it is extremely important for the car owner to realize that this does not mean that he may be careless about his air pressures. There must be no lowering of the bars if he is to receive maximum wear from his tires.

"Inflation should be checked frequently and the new figures should be regarded as the minimum. Tires should always be re-inflated before the air pressure has droppped 10 per cent below the recommended pressures in the new table.

"In order to give the motorist precise information on the exact air pressure he should carry in each of his tires, Goodyear engineers have prepared a chart, showing the weight, unloaded and loaded, and the weight on the front and rear wheels of a number of the more popular makes of cars, the figures being based on four passengers as a normal load."

Mr. Coates will be glad to give you information on the subject of proper tire inflation at any time.

"'twas a dark & stormy night"

And Oh! how welcome Pearl Oil's comfy warmth! Pearl Oil—because it keeps the air sweet and clean—heat by the roomful—and no one need budge to keep up the cheerful, efficient, little flame. Ready at the touch of a match to go all day, all night—sure warmth for living-room, bath, hall—anywhere steady, cheering warmth is wanted!

To insure best results, use only Pearl Oil—the clean-burning, uniform kerosene—refined and re-refined by the Standard Oil Company's special process. "Coal oil" or "kerosene" may mean any kind of kerosene—say "PEARL OIL"—copyrighted for your protection.

High School Notes

By ANNA NOYES

The harmony students are arranging difficult triads to produce harmony.

There are signs everywhere in front of the grounds bidding trespassers to keep off the grass, but the grass is yet to come.

The work in the chemistry class has been very interesting to the students this year. Experiments have shown how to make hydrogen and oxygen gases.

Miss Meta Stofen, the genial postmaster, has donated to the school several numbers of the National Geographic. We shall make good use of them.

Student body meetings will be held on the first Wednesday of each month and the other Wednesdays will be given over to entertainments prepared by the students.

There are 44 enrolled in second year commercial English and 40 in the first year. That is crowding the classes to the limit, but it cannot be helped at present.

Armand Franquelin, a P. G., is making a basket ball standard for the high school, out of water pipe. The courtesy of Marcy & Peterson's shop has been extended to him.

The animal husbandry class has been writing the live stock Association for information on horses and the class is anticipating a field trip to O. Brandt's ranch to see his Clydesdale horses.

The number of students enrolled continues to climb higher and higher. Recent statistics show that at present the school is accommodating 180 pupils—first year, 66; second year, 47; third year, 44; fourth year, 23.

The fill recently made in front of the high school building has been planted to barley. This will serve as a cover crop while the weed seed is germinating. All will later be plowed under, fertilizer added and a lawn started.

The average daily attendance for the first month of this year is exactly double that of five years ago, or an average increase each year of 20 per cent. The attendance is 80 per cent higher than when the bond drive was started.

The fourth year English class prepared a play appropriate to Columbus Day, entitled "Diego's Dream." It will be presented again at the next Parent Teachers' Association meeting for the benefit of this organization so interested in school welfare.

SMALL HAS SPICY DIVORCE CASE

According to charges in a divorce complait filed in the superior court by Nellie Payton, against Wiseman P. Payton, her husband had the fortitude on the evening of October 1st, this year, to saunter into a room in Glen Ellen where she happened to be, with his coat, unfortunately a dark one, profusely smeared wwith face powder.

Accused by her, the complaint reads of having hugged and squeezed a prominent young woman of Glen Ellen, he immediately endeavored to conceal the marks of the powder. Afterwards, however, Mrs. Payton alleges he admitted having been unduly intimate with the young woman.

Mrs. Payton avers that by reason of her husband's escapades with the young lady, and the adverse criticism resulting therefrom, she has been forced to give up her social life and activities among the women of Glen Ellen.

Mrs. Payton asks divorce, counsel fees and a reasonable sum each month for alimony.

The Paytons were married in San Francisco two years ago. There are no children. He is an employee at the State Home.

Mrs. Payton's attorney is Joseph L. Small.

AGAINST BOXING BY BOYS OF SCHOOL AGE

(From Petaluma Courier)

Mrs. H. Reynaud and Mrs. J. J. Barry of the Parent-Teachers Association wish to announce that the crusade against boxing contests made by the association is solely for the school boys. They do not wish to interfere with the regular boxing exhibitions of boys above school age.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC power, developed, is more abundant and cheaper in California than in any other state. That fortunate condition has been brought about chiefly by public utility companies under California's effective system of regulation.
